

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. It has improved my time at home, and has been very effective in reducing the number of calls from at least 20 to maybe one a week.